

Seattle... dress up for a Change!

at SnowBall

December 7, 2007 6-10pm

Neighbours Nightclub
1509 Broadway
Seattle

The Trans Community is putting on a party
and everybody is invited

SnowBall is Ingersoll Gender Center's annual celebration and fundraising event. For over thirty years, Ingersoll has been the Seattle Transgender and Gender Variant community providing support education and resources peer to peer. Today our mission and the need continues. Ingersoll is now a program of the Seattle LGBT Center.

Be a part of the Change. Become a Snowball Sponsor or Snowball Ambassador and help Ingersoll Gender Center and the Seattle LGBT Center make a difference and address employment challenges for Transgender people in Seattle.

73% of Transgender people in Seattle earn below the median income.

90% of Male-identified Transgender people in Seattle earn below the median income.

45% of Transgender people in Seattle report job discrimination based on Gender Identity.

Proceeds from SnowBall will help fund new employment and workplace programs to improve employment opportunities and promote economic justice for Trans citizens of Seattle in 2008.
